LECTURE | Procurement Contracts in Current Economic Times - Terms and Conditions: Do's and Don'ts

6:30pm - 8:00pm

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce Boardroom, 1301, Kinwick Centre, 32 Hollywood Road , Central
Members: 200HKD Non-Members: 250HKD

> Speaker: Mr. Gaston Bruneau LLB

Mr. Bruneau will review with you critical factors for those seeking to protect themselves from purchasing contracts gone wrong. More specifically, he will explore the following questions:

- Exclusion of other Terms & Conditions: Who wins the battle of the Forms?
- Jurisdiction and governing law: What is the relative importance of these clauses?
- Due Diligence in supply contracts: What requirements have become acceptable to demand to protect yourself from non-fulfillment?
- When everything goes wrong, what options do you have to mitigate damages and recover costs?

This discussion will be enlightening to operational managers, CFO's and CEO's alike, as well as all entrepreneurs standing between western giants and Chinese factories.

SEMINAR | You Can Become a Better Speaker

6:30pm - 8:00pm

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce Boardroom, 1301, Kinwick Centre, 32 Hollywood Road, Central
Members: 200HKD Non-Members: 300HKD

> Speaker: Mr. John Miers, Chairman, Black Isle Consultants

The irony is that almost all speakers have probably been advised or trained to present well. They don't want to bore you. They want to entertain you – but they fail miserably. Why?

In this workshop, John Miers explains his singular approach to business speaking – helping speakers discover how to be less conscious and more natural while communicating.
