SEMINAR | Where is Canada Headed?

6:30pm - 9:30am

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong Boardroom, 1301, Kinwick Centre, 32 Hollywood Road, Central Members: 200HKD Non-Members: 300HKD

Speaker: John Weston, West Vancouver Member of Parliament

> Constitutional expert, ex-Taipei resident and West Van MP, John Weston has a unique perspective on where our country is headed. You are invited to the Chamber for a wide ranging discussion over drinks on the major influences shaping Canada’s future ranging from constitutional to immigration to ethical issues facing Canadian society today. John Weston sees Canada from our perspective – he reads and writes Mandarin based on his decade long stint living in Taipei. He understands the importance of the Asian future, while having inroads into a broad range of other communities rising in Canada.

This will be an off-the-record discussion with a rising star in the Canadian parliament. Speaking Canada’s three most prominent languages, he is well positioned to communicate effectively with a vast majority of Canadians as they find their place in the Asia Pacific Century.

FINANCE | CANADA FINANCE - For Manulife, the acquisitive spirit is willing

> In Vietnam 's Ho Chi Minh City there is a tower emblazoned with the green logo of Manulife Financial , Canada 's top life insurer.

The same sign lights the sky in Hong Kong, Tokyo and other cities across the 19 countries where Manulife operates.

If Chief Executive Donald Guloien gets his way, the company will plant its flag in other global cities, maybe even in one of the European capitals it has ogled from a distance.
